RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees of The City University of New York approve the naming of Room L.76 at John Jay College as the “Richard Koehler ’73 Lecture Hall.”

EXPLANATION: Richard Koehler is an alumnus of John Jay College, a trustee of the John Jay College Foundation and Chair of the Alumni Campaign Committee. He is a long-time supporter of the College with lifetime giving of $176,157. His gifts have supported programming, scholarships and provided unrestricted support to the College.

Mr. Koehler is the Founding Partner of the firm of Koehler & Isaacs, LLP. Formerly, he was a Full Professor at the College, and also served as Commissioner of The New York City Department of Corrections.

In recognition of his generosity, the College recommends naming of the “Richard Koehler 73’ Lecture Hall.”
