GUTTMAN COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Appointment of Joan M. Lucariello
as Acting Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost

RESOLVED, that the Board of Trustees of The City University of New York approve the appointment of Joan M. Lucariello as Acting Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost at Guttman Community College, effective February 5, 2014.

EXPLANATION: The appointment of Dr. Joan M. Lucariello as Acting Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost follows the resignation of Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost José Luis Morín.

Dr. Lucariello has served as University Dean for Education at The City University of New York since March 2010 and is Professor of Psychology and Educational Psychology at the CUNY Graduate Center. Previously she was CUNY’s Interim University Dean for Academic Affairs. At CUNY, Dr. Lucariello has led key initiatives. She spearheaded the plan to enhance teacher-leader preparation with $3.5 million from the State Education Department. She forged a data exchange with NYCDOE to track the job performance of over 30,000 CUNY graduates. She also formed a CUNY partnership with Math for America. Dr. Lucariello served as principal investigator at CUNY for one of the first randomized control studies of online learning (done by Ithaka S+R). She also led the development of a brochure and website on best teaching practices for university faculty. Dr. Lucariello headed planning for both the inaugural (2010) and 2012 CUNY Mathematics Conferences.

Dr. Lucariello received her Ph.D. in Psychology from the CUNY Graduate Center, where she was a National Institute of Child Health and Human Development (NICHD) predoctoral fellow. Thereafter, Dr. Lucariello was awarded a postdoctoral fellowship from the National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH).

The President of Guttman Community College strongly recommends her appointment.
