HOSTOS COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Appointment of Christine Mangino
as Interim Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees of The City University of New York approve the appointment of Christine Mangino as Interim Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost at Hostos Community College, effective January 5, 2015.

EXPLANATION: As a result of the resignation of Vice President and Provost Carmen Coballes-Vega, Hostos Community College will be conducting a search for her replacement. The College requests the appointment of Dr. Christine Mangino to serve on an interim basis until a successful candidate is identified and appointed.

Dr. Mangino has served with distinction as the College’s Associate Dean of Academic Affairs since 2011. She has made a strong impact on the College due to her outstanding academic credentials, the academic programs she has successfully introduced and implemented within the context of her disciplines, her demonstrated leadership skills, as well as her many years as an accomplished educator. Among her numerous accomplishments, Dr. Mangino has collaborated with Hostos faculty to revise developmental offerings and provide additional supports for students through supplemental instruction, workshops, and the creation of a math and writing lab for students to work on self-paced computerized modules. She has developed the Hostos Teaching Institute and the Hostos Teaching Fellowship to support faculty and help strengthen their teaching pedagogies. Dr. Mangino has also worked closely with faculty and the College community to implement Pathways and CUNYfirst, and has played a crucial role in the recruitment of top-notch faculty.

Dr. Mangino served as Chair of the Department of Education at Hostos for four years. She possesses over fifteen years of teaching experience, including her seven years as an Associate Professor of Education at Hostos. She also served as the Director of the CUNY Teacher Academy at Hostos for three years.

Dr. Mangino holds a Doctor of Education in Instructional Leadership from St. John’s University in New York, an M.A. in Elementary Education from Hofstra University, and a B.A. in Elementary Education and English, also from Hofstra.
