RESOLVED, that the CUNY Institute for Education Policy at Roosevelt House be established at Hunter College, effective June 26 2012, subject to financial ability.

EXPLANATION: The Institute is designed to become a major resource for CUNY as the focal point for the discussion and dissemination of the most critical issues in K-20 education policy. Non-aligned and non-partisan, the Institute will provide a platform for policy-makers, scholars, practitioners, and the media to exchange ideas, research, and reform agendas through conferences, panels, visiting lecturers, seminars, and digital publications. The Institute will become recognized as the New York City location for high-level debate about the most important education policy choices facing the nation, and will establish itself as a trusted source of research and opinion on the multiple educational issues facing the nation.
