RESOLVED, that The College of Staten Island award Sally Williams the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa, at the college’s annual commencement ceremony.

EXPLANATION: Sally Williams has had a distinguished career in the federal government spanning over 35 years. She retired from a career working for the US Civil Service Commission as Chief of the Staffing Service Division where she established offices and oversaw the Agency’s field offices throughout the Northeast and in Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. Williams has held various Presidential positions for the American Society for Public Administration and has served in a number of high-profile community roles for the borough of Staten Island. She continues her work today as a community activist and has had a continuous record of advocacy and support for higher education on Staten Island.