York Analytical Laboratories

- Leading environmental testing laboratory in the Northeast serving the engineering community with analysis of regulated contaminants in soil, water and air. Looking to locate a innovative air testing facility at York College.

- Academic Benefits:
  - Provide internships starting at 2 students/year and increasing by 2 students annually.
  - Publish job opportunities with York College Career Services Office.
  - Create five $1,000 “York Analytical Laboratories Research Grants” annually for students in the natural science fields.
  - Joint research opportunities for York College Faculty.
  - Access to lab facility for individual faculty research, particularly to aid in the development of faculty grant proposals.
  - Collaborate with York College to host annual environmental summit for academics, business people, community leaders and political representatives.

- Five Year job projection: 13 jobs