MEDGAR EVERS COLLEGE

Appointment of John Flateau as Acting Vice President for Institutional Advancement

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees of The City University of New York approve the appointment of John Flateau as Acting Vice President for Institutional Advancement at Medgar Evers College, effective September 10, 2013.

EXPLANATION: John Flateau has directed major development efforts for many international non-profit organizations, and was responsible for developing Medgar Evers College’s grants-writing function. Dr. Flateau’s extensive experience will provide excellent leadership for the Division of Institutional Advancement’s efforts to develop new funding sources, including forming new partnerships with outside agencies and reestablishing the College’s legacy funding sources. Dr. Flateau will report directly to the President and will be a member of the President’s Cabinet. The Offices of Government Relations, Development, Alumni, and Campus Wide and External Communications will report to him.

Dr. Flateau holds a B.A. in English Literature from Washington Square College of New York University, an M.P.A. from Baruch College, and an M.A. in Political Science and Urban Policy, Master of Philosophy in Political Science, and a Ph.D. in Political Science, Public Policy and American Politics from the CUNY Graduate School and University Center.

Dr. Flateau is eminently qualified to provide effective leadership for the Division of Institutional Advancement and to enable the College to meet its grants and fundraising goals. The College President strongly recommends his appointment.
