HOSTOS COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Appointment of Christine Mangino
as Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees of The City University of New York approve the appointment of Christine Mangino as Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost at Eugenio María de Hostos Community College, effective June 7, 2016.

EXPLANATION: Dr. Mangino has served as the Vice President and Provost on an interim basis since January 2015 while a national search was being conducted. In a field of distinguished candidates identified from the search, Dr. Mangino made a strong impression due to her academic credentials, academic programs she has successfully introduced and implemented within the context of her disciplines, demonstrated leadership skills, prior experience as the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs, as well as numerous years as an accomplished educator.

Dr. Mangino served as Chair of the Department of Education at Hostos for four years. She possesses more than fifteen years of teaching experience including seven years as an Associate Professor of Education at Hostos. She also served as the Director of the CUNY Teacher Academy at Hostos for three years. Dr. Mangino received her Doctor of Education in Instructional Leadership from St. John’s University, and earned an M.A. in Elementary Education and a B.A. in Elementary Education and English from Hofstra University.

Among her numerous accomplishments, Dr. Mangino has collaborated with Hostos faculty over the years to revise developmental offerings, manage the CUNY Pathways initiative, and provide additional support for students through supplemental instruction, workshops, and the creation of a math and writing lab for students to work on self-paced computerized modules. She developed the Hostos Teaching Institute and the Hostos Teaching Fellowship to support faculty and help strengthen their teaching pedagogies. Dr. Mangino has worked closely with faculty and the college community to implement Pathways and CUNYFirst, and played a crucial role in the recruitment of top notch faculty.

The President strongly recommends her appointment.
