

Policy 1.04 Academic Program Elimination

The Chancellor is directed and authorized to review all program offerings within the City University of New York—doctoral, masters, baccalaureate, and associate degree levels—and to determine those areas that are not justified by student demand, enrollment, quality, geographic distribution, or other relevant academic or fiscal criteria, and to recommend the elimination of such programs. (BTM,1976,04-05,008,___)