

Policy 2.14 Orientation of New Members

To assist new Board of Trustees members in becoming familiar with their duties, orientation sessions shall be held for new members—open of course to all other members who may wish to attend—and a handbook shall be prepared, outlining the duties and functions of the Board of Trustees and including pertinent background material as to the operation of The City University of New York and its component units. (BTM,1965,04-26,004,___)