Policy 3.04 Non-Tax Levy Funds

Guidelines on the Use and Reporting of Non-Tax Levy Funds

Introduction

The City University of New York (CUNY) receives funds from a variety of sources. Many of the funds received are for specific, limited purposes or are subject to restrictions; however, some of the funds received are of a discretionary nature and considered unrestricted non-tax levy funds. The University and its colleges shall use all funds, regardless of type, in a manner consistent with applicable laws and regulations, policies, and other restrictions or designations governing their use.

Purpose

The purpose of this document is to provide guidance on the use of unrestricted non-tax levy funds and the annual reporting of such use.

Non-Tax Levy Funds Defined

The following are examples of non-tax levy funds:

- Gifts to the college, its affiliated foundation(s) or its related entities;
- Commissions and royalties from service contracts such as pouring rights, food service, vending, and bookstore operations (including virtual);
- Revenue from the licensing of CUNY facilities, such as classrooms, gyms, theatres, conference centers and other spaces;
- Royalties from the licensing or other commercialization of CUNY intellectual property, including trademarks, copyright, patents and technology;
- Admission fees and revenues from ticket sales, such as for athletic and entertainment events;
- Membership fees, such as for alumni and community memberships to athletic and wellness facilities;
- Revenues from parking lots and garages, including sale of parking permits;
- Revenues from sales of publications and subscriptions;
- Child care center tuition and fees;
- Indirect cost recoveries on grants and contracts administered through The Research Foundation of the City University of New York (RFCUNY) or elsewhere; and
- Other miscellaneous revenues such as interest income, forfeited bond deposits, and insurance proceeds, regardless of where the funds are held or who administers them.

The following are examples of what are considered tax-levy funds:

- Funds appropriated by the State and City of New York, including funds appropriated for tuition and fee revenue;
- Federal, State and City financial aid;
- Funds held by New York State Treasury in income fund reimbursable accounts or deposited with New York City as non-miscellaneous income (such as technology fees); and
- Reimbursements of tax-levy expenditures such as vendor refunds or summary salary reimbursements from RFCUNY.

For purposes of these Procedures, "Non-Tax Levy Funds" also include student activity fees; however, the use of student activities fees should follow the CUNY Fiscal Handbook for the Control and Accountability of Student Activity Fees and the Financial Management Guidelines related to the College Associations, both of which are currently being updated and which have been and will continued to be closely aligned with New York State's Procurement policies.
Unrestricted and Restricted Non-Tax Levy Funds

Non-Tax Levy Funds can be either unrestricted or restricted. Restricted non-tax levy funds must be administered and spent in accordance with the associated grant document, contract or gift agreement.

Unrestricted Non-Tax Levy Funds are funds that are not government appropriated and do not carry restrictions as to usage or purpose. These funds can generally be used for any legal purpose that will advance the mission of the University; however, there are several overarching principles governing the use of these funds.

Expenditures:

1. Must be for a valid and necessary business purpose;
2. Should not be for a personal benefit;
3. Should not be neither lavish or excessive;
4. Must advance the University's mission; and
5. May not support a political party or the campaign of any particular candidate for public office
6. May not support any organization that restricts membership by race, creed, sex, religion or sexual orientation.

For purpose of these Procedures, Restricted Non-Tax Levy Funds refers to funds that are restricted because of the terms of a grant document, gift agreement or other contract, and must be administered and spent in accordance with terms of such document.

Other Non-Tax Levy Funds are "restricted" in the sense that the entity generating the revenue is organized with a specific, limited purpose (i.e., operating a childcare center, performing arts center, etc. rather than more generally benefitting the University) and any revenues must be used in support of that specific purpose. Or, in the case of student activity fees, the funds are restricted in that they may be spent only for the purposes set forth in the eleven expenditure categories described in Section 16.2 of the CUNY Board of Trustees Bylaws ("CUNY Bylaws"). For purposes of these Procedures, these types of funds are deemed to be Unrestricted Non-Tax Levy Funds.

Types of Non-Tax Levy Funds

There are two types of Non-Tax Levy Funds: College Non-Tax Levy Funds and Related Entity Non-Tax Levy Funds, each of which is described below.

College Non-Tax Levy Funds

College Non-Tax Levy Funds are held in local college bank accounts. The source of these funds are not tax levy in nature and include things such as interest income; commissions, royalties, fees and other payments that are not otherwise generated or held by a separately-incorporated related entity. They may also include revenues from unincorporated college associations.

Related Entity Non-Tax Levy Funds

Related Entity Non-Tax Levy Funds are controlled by separately incorporated entities that are related to CUNY or the colleges, and are held in the entities' own bank accounts. Related Entity Non-Tax Levy Funds can become College Non-Tax Levy Funds when, for example, a college foundation transfers funds to the college for college expenditure.

Examples of sources of Related Entity Non-Tax Levy Funds include:

Auxiliary Enterprise Corporations ("Auxiliaries"). These are separately incorporated tax-exempt entities that support the colleges by providing non-instructional auxiliary services. Examples of auxiliary services include: food service, catering and vending operations; "pouring rights" contracts; bookstores; printing shops; student housing; sports, health and recreation facilities; parking operations; shuttle buses; and performing arts centers.
Auxiliaries provide auxiliary services through: (i) direct operation (e.g., child care centers), (ii) subcontracts with other vendors (e.g., transportation services), and (iii) by acting as a college's fiscal agent in connection with a college or University contract or facility (e.g., pouring rights, theater operations) or asset licensing program (e.g., short-term facility use, trademarks). Auxiliary funds include royalties, commissions, and other payments received through their contracts with vendors, licensees, and others. The Auxiliaries use these funds pursuant to their board-approved budgets to support their operations, directly support college activities, and provide discretionary support for the college or the college president.

College Associations ("Associations"). These are separately incorporated 1 tax-exempt entities that support the colleges by administering student activity fee-supported budgets and otherwise supporting the student body. Association funds consist of student activity fees held by the Associations, revenues generated from student activity fee-supported activities (e.g., ticket revenues from concerts, advertising revenue from student publications, fundraising by student clubs, etc.), and such other revenues that an Association may from time-to-time generate or receive. The Associations adopt budgets and use these funds pursuant to the CUNY Fiscal Handbook for the Control and Accountability of Student Activity Fees and other University policies and procedures. Student activity fee funds (including revenues generated from student activity fee-supported activities) must be expended in accordance with the categories set forth in Section 16.2 of the CUNY Bylaws. Student activity fees may not be used to provide discretionary support for the college or the college president except as permitted by Section 16.9 of the CUNY Bylaws regarding a college purposes fund.

[Footnote:] 1 Some college associations are not separately incorporated but are instead operated as fund groups of a particular college. Monies held by these unincorporated college associations are College Non-Tax Levy Funds.

Student Services Corporations ("SSCs"). These are separately incorporated tax exempt entities that support the colleges by operating the student union/center on campus or otherwise providing student support services. SSC funds consist of a portion of the college student activity fee earmarked for use by the SSC, revenues from licensing their facilities, and such other revenues that an SSC may from time-to-time generate or receive. SSCs are restricted in the same manner as Associations regarding their use of student activity fees and their operations generally.

College Foundations ("Foundations"). These separately incorporated tax-exempt entities support the colleges by soliciting donors and gifts, and related activities. Foundation funds consist primarily of restricted and unrestricted donations to the Foundations. The Foundations use these funds pursuant to their board-approved budgets to, among other things, support their operations, directly support college activities, provide scholarships, and provide discretionary support for the college president. Discretionary support may take the form of the transfer of funds to the college president (in which case the funds become College Non-Tax Levy Funds) or direct payment of expenses at the college president's request. Any discretionary support for the college president must be in accordance with the memorandum of understanding between the Foundation and its supported college, as well as any University policies and procedures regarding such support. A Foundation's use of donor-restricted funds must be consistent with the purpose and other restrictions set forth in any written agreement with the donor.

The Research Foundation of the City University of New York ("RFCUNY"). The RFCUNY is a private, not-for-profit educational corporation that manages private and government sponsored programs and grants on behalf of CUNY. The RFCUNY supports CUNY faculty and staff in identifying and obtaining external support (pre-award) from government and private sponsors and is CUNY's fiscal agent, responsible for the administration of all such funded programs (post-award). The Non-Tax Levy Funds held and administered by the RFCUNY include federal, state, city, and private grants, as well other non-grant funds such as Overhead Receipts and other Non-Grant or Institutional Funds. "Overhead Receipts" are generated by charging a predetermined percentage, often known as the Facilities and Administrative Rate, to externally sponsored projects. Each college is responsible for determining who has authority over the use of those funds. "Non-Grant/Institutional Funds" are other non-tax levy funds that are deposited at the RFCUNY and spent from the RFCUNY. Examples include Adult and Continuing Education funds per the University's Standard Operating Procedures for use of such funds and other institutional funds.
Child Care Centers, Performing Arts Centers and Other Separately Incorporated Related Entities: These separately incorporated tax-exempt entities benefit the colleges typically by providing specific support services. Non-Tax Levy Funds generated or held by these entities include childcare fees, federal, state and local grant funds, ticket revenues, gifts from donors and other fundraising revenues. These entities use these funds pursuant to their board-approved budgets to support their operations.

Procurement and Approvals

Purchasing using College Non-Tax Levy Funds is governed by CUNY's Procurement Policy and Procedures, adopted by the CUNY Board of Trustees on February 21, 2017. Purchasing using Related Entity Non-Tax Levy Funds is governed by the New York Not-for-Profit Corporation Law; the related entity's own policies and procedures; and any policies, guidelines, and procedures issued by the University with respect to any or all related entities, including Financial Management Guidelines and the CUNY Fiscal Handbook for the Control and Accountability of Student Activity Fees.

Reporting the Use of Unrestricted Non-Tax Levy Funds

Beginning for FY 2017 (July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017), each college is required to report the College Non-Tax Levy Funds it has expended, as well as the Related Entity Non-Tax Levy Funds expended by the related entities that support the college.

Reports shall be prepared by each college's Business Office and certified by the college's Chief Fiscal Officer prior to their submission to the University's Office of Internal Audit (OIA). OIA may request additional information and support from the colleges.

Reports are due within 60 days of the year-end.
