

Policy 5.041 Chancellor and President Emeritus

In recognition of their distinguished service to the University, the Board of Trustees of the University wishes to extend its appreciation to chancellors and college presidents who leave office and retire from the University by conferring the title of Chancellor or President Emeritus.

The title of Chancellor Emeritus or President Emeritus will be automatically conferred upon chancellors or college presidents who have honorably retired from the University after ten or more years of service in these titles. The Board of Trustees may confer the title of Chancellor Emeritus upon chancellors who have honorably retired with fewer than ten years of chancellor service. Upon recommendation by the Chancellor to the Board of Trustees, the title of President Emeritus may be conferred upon college presidents who have honorably retired with fewer than ten years of presidential service.

The rank of Chancellor and President Emeritus is unsalaried and entitles the former executive to use of University libraries and research facilities and such other services as are appropriate.
