

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

[T]he President of a college may recommend to the Board of Trustees that it grant to a tenured or certificated member of the instructional staff leaves of absence without pay for purposes consonant with section 13.[3].b. of the Bylaws of The City University of New York for two consecutive years. A final, third consecutive year of leave of absence without pay may be recommended by the President to the Chancellor, who shall review the President's recommendation and, if the Chancellor concurs, submit it to the Board of Trustees for action.

(Board of Trustees Minutes, 1985, 09-19, 7, A)