

Policy 5.24 Vacation Pay for Deceased Staff

In the event that any member of the instructional staff of the Board of Trustees of The City University of New York should die while in service and before using all accumulated annual leave time, the compensation to such deceased member shall continue until the end of a period equal to his or her accumulated unused annual leave, and such compensation shall be payable to the legal representatives of the deceased member. (BTM,1977,08-01,017,___)